Anne Cranford

GC
975.502
C38ST,
1948

The theme of this year's annual is the result of a pun on the name of the editor and the name of the business manager. Descriptive phrases are from "Birds of America" and the minds of the staff, but selection was definitely made with due consideration for the suitability of the creatures chosen in each case. We trust that you will find it both enlightening and enjoyable.

Cranfi love,

gally, it has been one farcay year, with all the many masters and post-graduates! (allegory personified!) Sexy nascar, (hope this is legal for the annual) you have been more fun coming with, even if it did involve a certain chère bear! Plus the itchy derriere! I honestly don't think I could have survived the year without you, away one! Pie face, even if Hugby Week didn't come off at Va. Beach
we shall strive for noncedance and aim for bigger & better things! On my part, giving double squish to the People's Choice, on your part - chère bear!

You must bless the good metropolises of Lake Forest with your presence this summer and the wicked life shall ensue! Don't know what we'll do without the continuations of our scientific experiments! Slam, bam, pardon mame! Must end this now, Master Cranford, but thank you for being so much fun etc. this year.

Maddest love,
Quor

p.s. Don't forget our planter plants!
caggy one!

The Bobwhite:

Helps educate the young (the book really says so); a most attractive bird; especially valuable in field trials (games to you); good-natured, but firm; a bird, both well-known and well-loved; a friend and companion; her easy accessibility make her always immediately available.

note: markedly southern.

range: Birmingham, Alabama nest: Pooh Corner.

Because of her value to birddom, we therefore confer the award of dedicatee upon our bobwhite:

SENIORS

Ann Adams
Picidus Americanus, Woodpecker
68 inches

Tall, the new look, astonishing strength and vigor, chases other birds about. Can be a help to man . . . one of our more athletic birds.

NOTE: A loud, shrill shriek, often repeated
RANGE: Chicago, Illinois, but prefers California
NEST: Adams' House, Pooh Corner

Garnett Andrews
Antrostomus Cariolenisis,
Chuckwill's Widow
65 inches

Friendly smile, distinguished by the oddity rather than melody of its notes, active when necessary but sometimes lazy . . . annual appearance.

NOTE: A cry when upset

RANGE: Knoxville, Tennessee

NEST: Room No. 7, Pooh Corner

Dear Cranford-

At this point I am lousy (not that I wasn't in the first place-). A..

I want to wish you the best - and may you

NOTE: Cheery and perpetual
RANGE: Knoxville, Tennessee
NEST: Adams' House, Pooh Corner

Cynthia Brunson McConnell

Thyrothorus Tennesorus, Wren

66 inches

*Active, nervous, excitable, voluble, curious, given to gesticulation;
domestically inclined . . . yet athletic in spite of it all.*

NOTE: Not as musical as some of its fellows'

RANGE: Knoxville, Tennessee

NEST: Room No. 3, Pooh Corner

Dear Anne,
Well, this ain't goodbye 'cause
I'll be seeing you around the old town, but have fun
next year at S.A.S. and the year after too.

Sara Brantingham Macfarlane

Troglodytidae, Cat-Tail

62 inches

Tons of love,

Sally

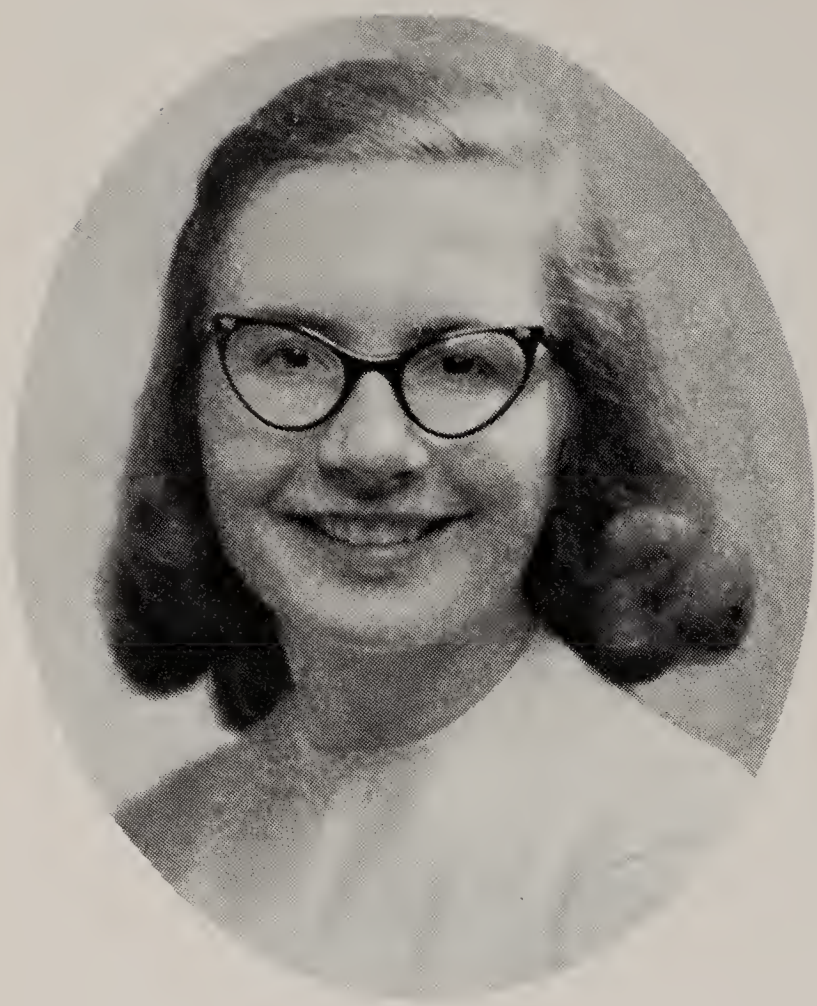

Curious, abundant energy, never quiet, but always active and exceedingly excited about something; noted for cleverness and meticulousness . . . a leader in the sporting events.

NOTE: Cheery with Mid-Western tune

RANGE: Charlottesville, Virginia

NEST: Old Ivy Inn

Mary Byrd McNeal

Byrdus McNealus, Bird

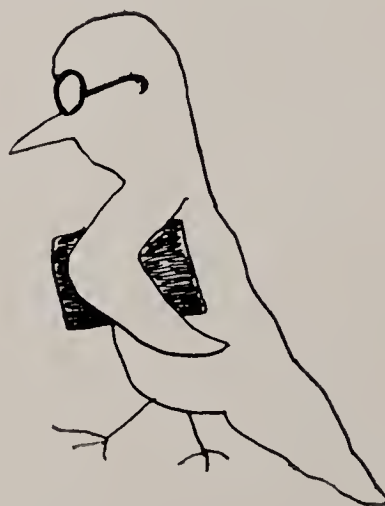

64 inches

Shy when first known, but will become friendly upon acquaintance; a necessary member of Byrddom, though sometimes obstreperous; a dePENdable Byrd.

NOTE: Varies with external conditions

RANGE: Fairport, Virginia

NEST: Room No. 7, Pooh Corner

Jean Lange Makielski

Sayorus Phoebe, Phoebe

65 inches

Confiding ways and gentle manner, so demure that she is almost staid, unassuming and timid . . . one of our song birds.

*Dear Anne (or should I say "John"?)
The were together at
Miss Bessie's, after work
St. Louis. Good luck
next year — and see
you this summer!
Jean*

NOTE: Pleasing when heard
RANGE: Charlottesville, Virginia
NEST: Barracks Road

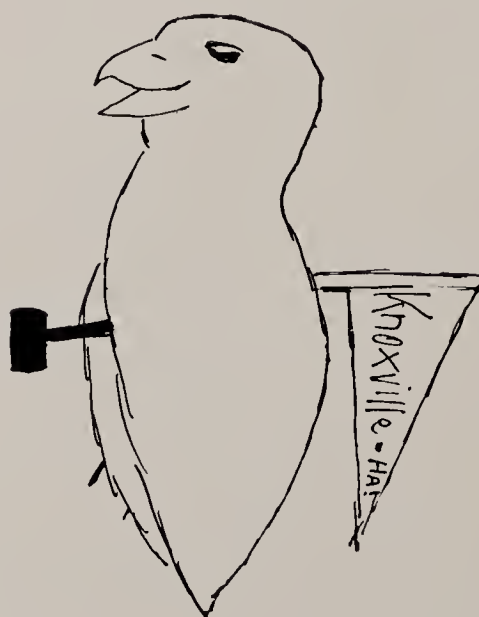

Katherine Belle Mebane
Haliacetus Leucocephalus, Bald Eagle
67 inches

A symbol of political power. In flight or at rest the Bald Eagle is majestic; its red head lends dignity to its imposing form.

NOTE: Demands attention

RANGE: Rockwood, Tennessee, not far enough away from Knoxville

NEST: Room No. 4, Pooh Corner

Elizabeth van Horne Miller

Chordeiles Virginianas, Nighthawk

61 inches

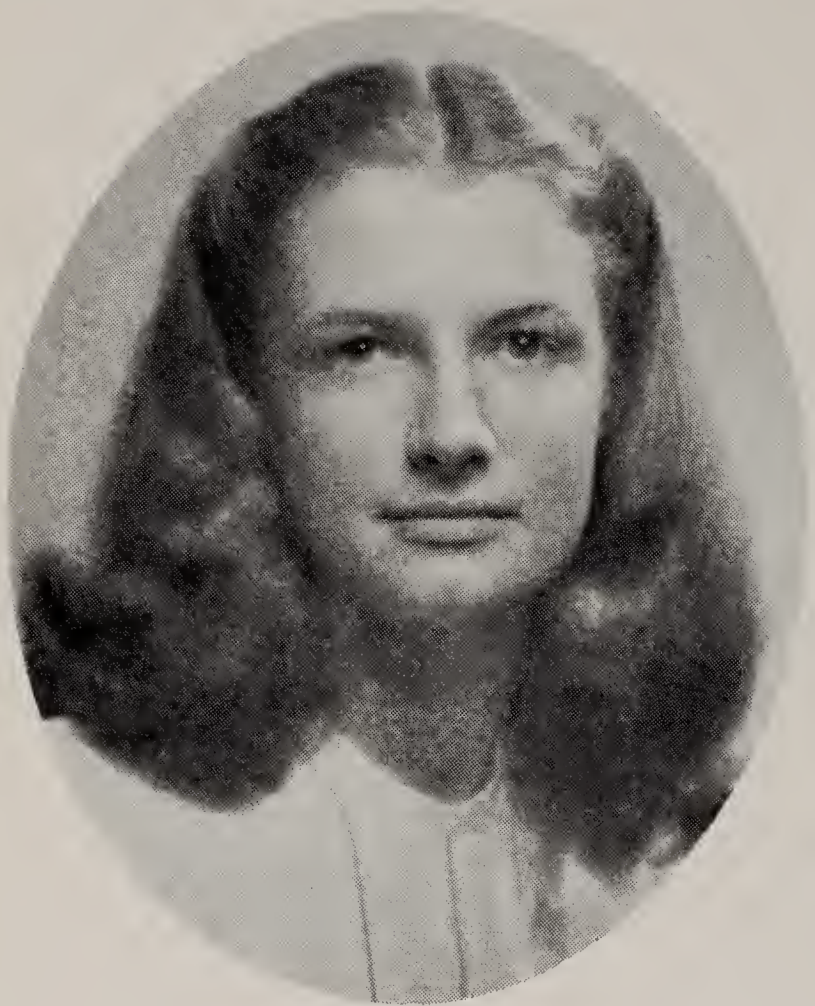

Nocturnal habits, industrious and useful, but various and marked eccentricities; astonishing in its flight, a voracious feeder, an annual singer.

NOTE: Distinct cry and strong voice

RANGE: Birmingham, Michigan

NEST: Room No. 1, Pooh Corner

Virginia Marshall Morton

Colaptes Auratus, Flicker

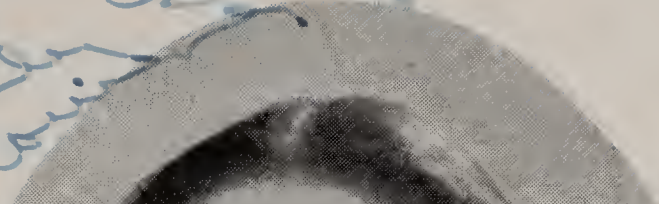

68 inches

Talents handy in life around it, loves to hammer and bore holes, disposition to make friends with other birds; has been known to be erratic in paying attention . . . an energetic and dramatic worker.

NOTE: Pleasing and rapid
RANGE: Charlottesville, Virginia
NEST: Edgewood Lane

To Annie
Dear friend,
This is it the last time I see
you. I shall be leaving you soon.
Sincerely,

RANGE: Shepherdstown, West Virginia, but often migrates to Baltimore

NEST: Room No. 6, Pooh Corner

Dear Crawford

Virginia Hyland Randolph

Fratercula Aretica, Puffin

65 inches

Noted for its bespectacled appearance and mild manner, rapid but labored cry, deep-throated laughter; a unique and unusual bird . . . manages to collect from users of the vine.

NOTE: Unusual, but we love it anyway

RANGE: Charlottesville, Virginia

NEST: "The Stepping Stones"

Carol Alice Saunders

Seierus Maticilla,
Louisiana Water Thrush
65 inches

Loves to be near water; characteristic movements are very quick and nervous; normally timid, but most congenial with fellow-birds; active when situation demands it.

RANGE: New Orleans, Louisiana
NEST: Room No. 1, Pooh Corner

Caroline Bernard Tilden

Icteria Virens, Chat

65 inches

Mr. Rialdo, may I
your. I love you!
I love you! I love you!
I love you! I love you!
I love you! I love you!
I love you! I love you!
I love you! I love you!
I love you! I love you!

Noted for its sense of humor; essentially a clown; voluble; a song-bird; can take and make jokes, which are not malicious but amusing.

NOTE: Rapidly uttered

RANGE: Winter Haven, Florida

NEST: Room No. 1, Pooh Corner

Sara Sutton Timmons

Myiarchus Crinitus, Crested Fly-Catcher

65 inches

An industrious and skillful bird, often pugnacious, but does little if any harm; well-known for tendencies of treasuring.

NOTE: Varies with mood

Virginia Eaglesfield Wilson

Bacolophus Bicolor, Tufted Titmouse

64 inches

A bird endowed with great curiosity, often stubborn, clever; an early bird; graceful, an actor, likes saintly business.

NOTE: Pleasant but argumentative

RANGE: Edgeworth, Pennsylvania

NEST: Room No. 1, Pooh Corner

WE GET the WORM

Here's What you get: ~

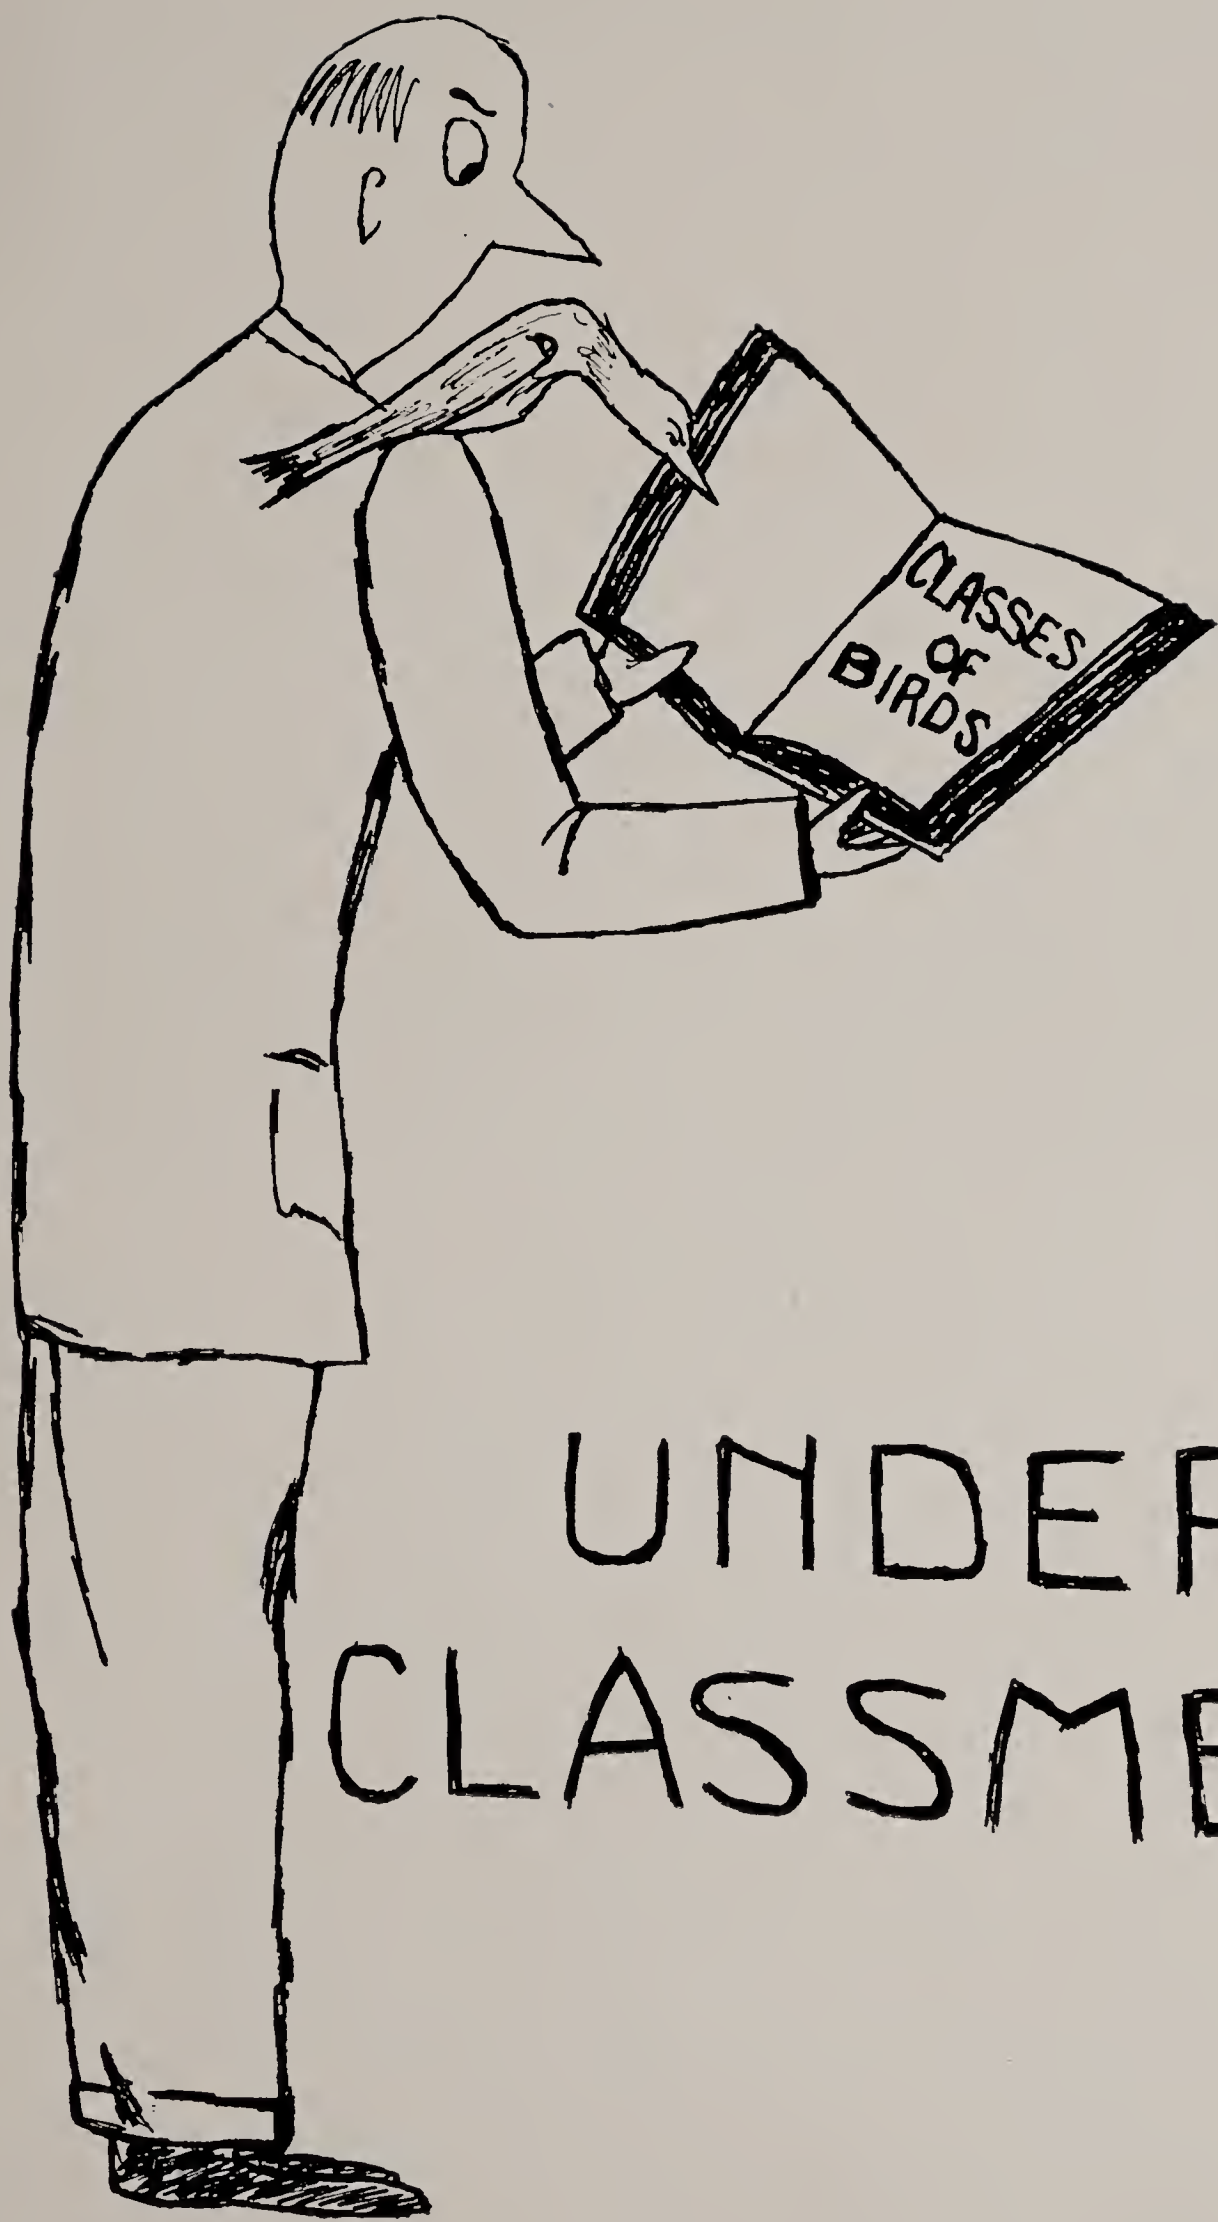

*Sing a song of sixpence, a pocketful of rye.
Four and twenty owlets baked in a pie.
As the year is ending, the birds begin to sing;
Just listen to the list of things which to you they bring.*

I, Ann Adams, leave the building slightly the worse for wear.
I, Garnett Andrews, do not leave, as it is too much trouble.
I, Margie, leave a Boy 'er two around.
I, Boojie Cochran, leave Janie Pieper's dress for Janie and her friends.
I, Emma Lou Crutchfield, leave my love with Denie Sandison because of her hoarse voice.
I, Turkey Fowle, leave before Thanksgiving comes.
I, Anne Forster, leave Judy to perch on the family tree.
I, Bessie Franklin, leave my graceful flight to Ricky Wigton.
I, Emily Fretz, leave my name behind for added exam time frets.
I, Ella Hixson, leave a request that someone belle the kitty.
I, Pego House, leave my Frankness to Toddy, knowing she'll understand.
I, Cynthia McConnell, leave Wells enough alone.
I, Sally Macfarlane, leave Old Ivy Inn the ads.
I, Byrd McNeal, leave my glasses to be public spectacles.
I, Jean Makielski, leave as I have done every other day for the past four years.
As my present to St. Anne's, I, Kitty Belle Mebane, leave.
I, Virginia Morton, leave Day for Knight.
I Dee Dee the Miller, leave my floury (flowery, stupid!) work to Anita the Baker.
I, Happy Potts, leave my plan for making Stoney Potts.
I, Virginia Randolph, leave my mother to attest my presence.
I, Carol Saunders, leave my off-key caroling for Stabler's Carol.
I, Tillie Tilden, leave my broken legs as a permanent legacy.
I, Sutton Timmons, leave my pessimism to all eager beavers.
I, Ginny Wilson, leave my alarm clock to the Eeyore nestlings, so they, too, may catch a worm.

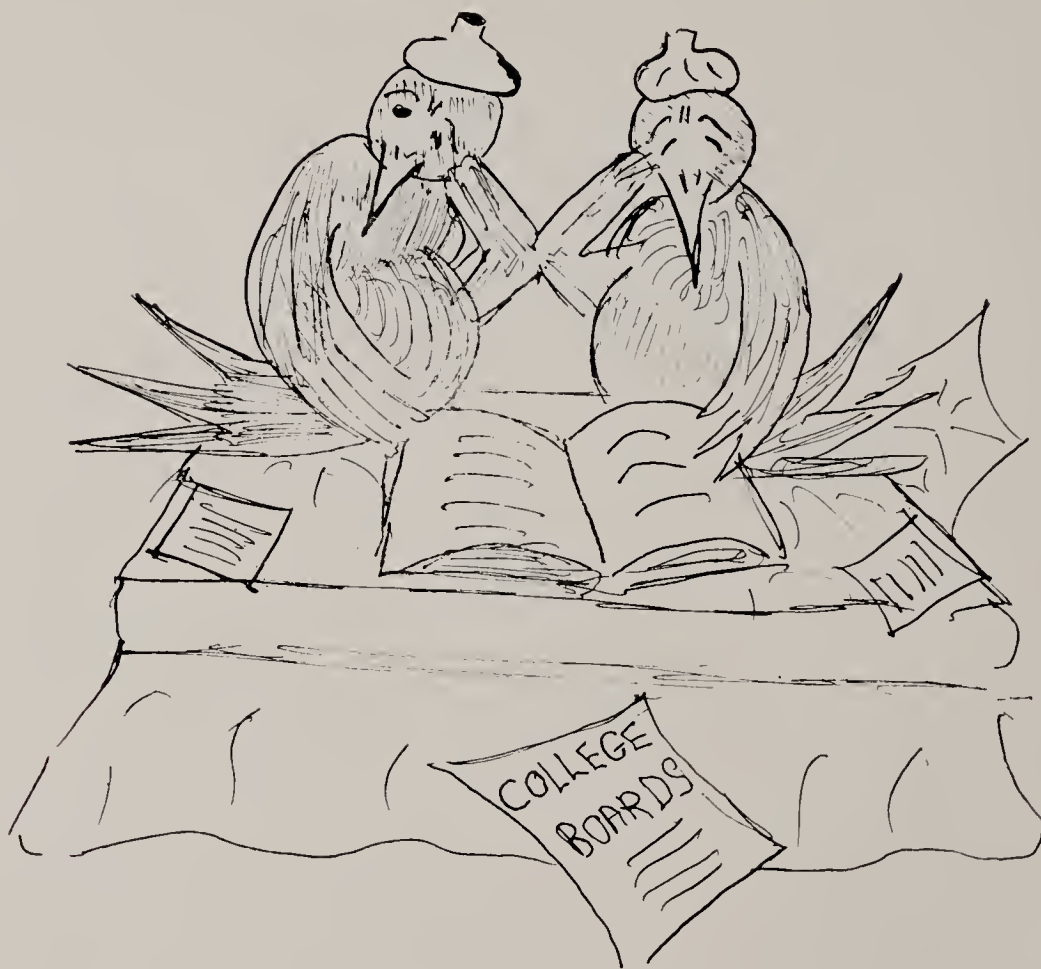

We, the flock of '48, leave our place in the aviary to future generations, and are sorry if we've been a bird 'en.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE RHYME OF THE ANCIENT PRINCIPAL

(with apologies to Mr. Coleridge)

It is an aged Principal,
And she stoppeth one of three.
"By thy small black book and pencil
sharp,
Now wherefore stopps't thou me?

"Commencement time long since has passed,
And we've gone out the door;
We'd love to visit you again,
But fear we'd be a bore."

She holds them with her skinny hand,
"There was a school," quoth she.
"Hold off, unhand me, gray-haired loon!"
Eftsoons her hand dropped she.

She held her with her glittering eye,
The graduate stood still
And listened like a three years' child;
The Principal had her will.

The graduate sat on a stone,
A very hard locale,
And thus spake on this aged head,
The bright-eyed Principal.

"The school was running very well;
Our nestlings were quite able,
And as a member of that clan,
You must now hear my fable.

"I had you birds penned up one time,
And then you flew the coop.
I had to open wide the doors,
Then did my spirits droop.

"My sin was shooting birddom full
Of serum, pep, and learning;
But, I must tell you of their fate,
To know of which you're yearning.

"Bessie still is traveling,
A fine career she's found;
While Ginny's made an atom,
Now Ginny's not around.

"Pego's ne'er left Charlottesville,
As the town needs all its houses,
And Sutton works at Levy's,
Selling skirts and blouses.

"Upon Emily's curly locks
Our acclaim is resting:
She composes music for Words of Deedee's jesting.

"Kitty Belle's an analyst,
Of what she's not revealing;
But Margie's sure 'tis of herself—
There's so much for concealing!

"And yesterday upon the street
I saw a dismal hearse;
'Twas Ella's patient, Emma Lou,
For Ella's now a nurse.

"Sally's just been et by Byrd—
A delicious morsel was she—
As a bookworm did she live,
As food for Byrd now does she.

"Virginia just hit an artery,
The patient is a-spurting;
Makielski tried to patch it up—
The patient is past hurting.

"McConnell now is sweeping floors,
And washing up the dishes,
While Garnett dozes on a bank
And waits and waits for fishes.

"My namesake's in a gilded cage—
A millionaire she married;
Ann Adams now is wheeling twins,
And looking rather harried.

"Carol's winning tennis cups—
The score at love intrigues her.
Our orange-picker Tillie says
Her business quite fatigues her.

"An opera star is Happy Potts;
The Met. will soon be closing,
And Randolph has her Ph.D.
In matters most imposing.

"From Grapevine to a scandal sheet,
Anne Forster hath sped;
And Turkey is the Fowle I shot—
At least, that's what they said.

"After having shot you birds
With the lessons of our course,
We had to let you out the door;
We did it with remorse.

"And now, farewell!—but this I tell
To you of 'forty-eight:
We've missed you in the past ten years
Since you went out the gate.

"You were fun then, you're more so now,
And I've enjoyed your presence;
Alas, I must go 'tend the coop,
For we've some problem pheasants."

The Principal, whose eye is bright,
Who always knows the score,
Is gone, and now the graduate
Turns from the St. Anne's door.

She goes like one that hath been stunned,
To think she cannot stay;
But now, at least, she knows the news
Since her Commencement Day.

1. HOMING PIGEONS: Their name is due to their chief characteristic.
2. MURRE: A creature of the crowd.
3. CHIMNEY-SWIFT: “The small-child of the flock.”
4. TREE SWALLOWS: Usually found resting on telephone wires.
5. BARN OWL: Always hungry.
6. RED-BELLIED WOODPECKER: Decided disposition to conserve physical energy.
7. KITTIWAKES: Great wanderers.
8. SCISSOR-TAILED FLYCATCHERS: Shrieks loudly when attacking.
9. BROWN THRASHER: A song of its own.
10. HARRIS’S HAWK: Tame and unsuspicious.
11. INDIGO BUNTING: Must expect surprises from this bird.
12. PYRRHULOXIA: Frequent changes of mood.
13. PURPLE MARTINS: Houses erected especially for them.
14. GNAT CATCHER: A sweet and lovely voice, though rather weak.
15. PENGUIN: Appearance gives reason.
16. BOHEMIAN WAXWING: One of our best dressed birds.
17. MOUNTAIN CHICKADEE: Most curious about loiterers.
18. GOOSE: Those who “put off” work, etc.
19. CARDINAL: Young are cared for eagerly.
20. BUSH TIT: Bustling and business-like manner.
21. DUCK: Often noisy and obstreperous.
